EDITOR'S NOTE

Firstly, Happy Mother's Day to all the wonderful mums out there. We hope you enjoy your special day! If you're having trouble deciding what to do with your mum, why not treat her to a movie. Chick Flicks will be on again this month, with Romantic classic 'While You Were Sleeping'. Music By The Sea brings internationally acclaimed pianist, Simon Tedeschi to the Sandgate Town Hall stage. Bracken Ridge once again hosts its annual Backyard Bonanza at McPherson Park. Plus, the local streets will be bustling during May with plenty of markets and entertainment to satisfy the whole family.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Cr Victoria Newton

The foreshore parklands remain very popular, even through the cooler winter months.

I've been pleased to support $480,000 in funding to upgrade one kilometre sections of the shared pathway to the north of the Sandgate Pool.

A four hundred meter section between Ninth and Tenth Avenues has been rebuilt as a wider path, and around six hundred meters have been built from Nineteenth Avenue through to Twenty-Third Avenue between Eventide and the sea wall.

Further work to continue to widen and upgrade the pathway between Tenth and Nineteenth Avenues now needs to be done, which will be more costly due to the different levels of the pathway between the sea wall and the road. This is part of my budget submission for the 2015/16 Council Budget.

It's important for people using these pathways to remember they are shared paths- so courtesy like keeping to the left of the path and cyclists ringing bells when approaching pedestrians is very important.

Also, I'm pleased to allocate further funding of $26,000 to replace bench seating along the Brighton foreshore areas.

Stirling Hinchliffe MP

On Saturday the 16th of May, the Peaceful Walk will commence at 10am opposite the Sandgate Police Station in Keogh Street, Sandgate. A ceremony of guest speakers with family and community activities will follow at the Einbunpin Lagoon. This event raises awareness of domestic and family violence and sends the message that it will not be tolerated.

On this day, we come together as a community and reflect on the sobering reality of family and domestic violence. It is too often an issue that is kept in the dark, out of sight and out of mind. Alarming, there are on average 180 domestic violence incidents in Queensland each day.

I will be a strong voice in the Palaszczuk Government to act on the Domestic Violence Taskforce's 'Not Now, Not Ever' Report Recommendations released earlier this year.

If family or domestic violence is impacting you, your family or someone you know, please contact DV Connect on 1800 811 811.

Cr Amanda Cooper

The Council tennis / basketball courts in Ferguson Park, Bracken Ridge (behind the library) are open to the public and are extremely popular. The courts can also be used at night until 10pm.

There is no booking system for the courts, so it is a case of first in first served. If you are using them, please be mindful of others who may be waiting to use the courts so that everyone has a chance to have a game.

The playground on the western side of the tennis courts in Ferguson Park is being upgraded. The work will include removing all of the playground equipment except the timber climbing wall, decking and attached bank slide. Soil and turf will be put in. Tree trimming and lifting of branches will also be undertaken to open up the area for better casual surveillance and security. A new playground with a shade structure will be built in the top two-thirds of the existing playground area. It is anticipated that the project will start in early May and the area will be fenced off for approximately 5-6 weeks until the turfed areas are established.

BARRY'S GARDENING TIPS

Barry Batchelor, Your Local Gardening Expert

It's a great time of the year to be planting vegetables and flowers in Sandgate. With plenty of moisture still in our soils and a reduction in those hot days, Sandgate gardeners should be in for a bumper crop of vegetables and a beautiful flowering winter garden.

It's also a good time to clean up your garden beds, and prune overhanging branches to increase winter sunshine. Why not make a fresh compost pile from your prunings, adding fine layers of fresh nitrogen rich lawn clippings for heat?

This time of year is an ideal time to plant evergreen fruit trees. Don't forget to clean up existing fruit trees, remove weeds, and apply lime, compost and fresh mulch; keep an eye out for citrus scale, and if present spray with white oil late in the day. Make sure you mulch to beyond your fruit trees' drip line or 30cm past the further most growth.

April is an ideal time to weed and clean up your pot plants, re-pot with a high quality potting mix and fertilise with a slow release fertiliser (all available from the Garden Gate Nursery). Keep an eye out for weeds which have gone to seed; weeds in seed should be carefully placed into your wheelie bin as composting may not destroy all seeds.

The approach of winter is the time to sow peas, plant brassicas (broccoli, kales and cabbages), and root crops like beetroots; continue planting onions and greens like spinach, rocket and silverbeet as they love the cooler months.

As the weather cools watering can be reduced to garden beds; a simple trick is to pull back your mulch and check the soil for moisture. A slightly damp, cool soil is ideal.

See you at the Garden Gate!

TRADITIONAL CUISINE TO FEED CAMBODIAN DREAMS

Ellen Moynihan

A Cambodian soiree will be held in May to raise funds for the grass-roots, not-for-profit organisation Feeding Dreams. The organisation runs a community school, providing free education, school meals and community support to over 800 children and families living in the slums of Siem Reap.

The event will include three courses of traditional Cambodian cuisine serenaded by vocalist and acoustic guitarist Emily Gilhome, as well as a silent auction and raffle. The cost will be $50 per person, and all proceeds go directly to Feeding Dreams.

The organiser of the event, Kylie Petit, is passionate about raising as much money as possible for Feeding Dreams after seeing how far a single dollar can go on her own travels in Cambodia.

"Education and a school meal can be life changing," she says. "Feeding Dreams gives kids an opportunity for a life that they could not otherwise have."

Kylie first came to be involved in Feeding Dreams after meeting the founder, Kerry Huntley, while volunteering for a different organisation in Cambodia. When she arrived back in Australia, Kylie shared the story of her travels in Cambodia with the students at Shorncliffe State School.

Kylie promised to take her own daughter back to Cambodia as soon as she could. "I feel it is important that my daughter sees how children in poor countries live so that she can appreciate her own life, and maybe be inspired to live it in a way that gives back," she says.

Other families were interested in going along, and a trip has been planned for December this year. The families will volunteer at Feeding Dreams, with the children working in the classrooms assisting in English lessons, and the parents helping out with whatever else is needed by the school. "Our plan is to roll up our sleeves for two weeks and have a great experience we'll never forget," says Kylie.

If unable to attend the event, donations can still be made directly to Feeding Dreams. "We'd love it if local businesses could support us," Kylie says. ♦♦

GUY LEECH LAUNCHES NATIONAL WELLNESS PROGRAM

Suzi O'Shea

As a young boy, Guy Leech and his brother witnessed their father having a heart attack. While their dad survived, that was a moment that stayed with Guy as he made a pact with himself that he would never be unfit or unhealthy.

With 7 Uncle Toby's Super Series titles under his belt, Guy has achieved many accolades in a career forged from hard work, determination and a willingness to remain healthy, fit and happy.

His latest venture is about spreading the message of health and wellness to entire communities. Launching next month, Guy and his business partners will be taking to the streets of Sandgate to chat to business leaders, schools and prominent members of the community with influence. They will conduct a wellness assessment through workouts and other means.

"We come in, not just from a fitness point of view or a weight loss focus, but taking a holistic approach to health and well-being. We will be chatting to locals and people in the area and will be running a well-being exercise."

This year, they will be coming to Sandgate with a two-day wellness summit. "There is already a lot of interest from advocates in the business world who have a strong belief in what they're doing to keep spreading the message."

These Wellness Warriors can undertake an online course on an E-learning platform for a certification and can help get involved in transforming the community for a healthier, happier future.

Paul Timms and Andy Monk are currently the local ambassadors helping Guy kick off this life-changing initiative. It is the work of the Wellness Warriors that keeps the message of wellness and holistic health within the community providing support, advice and information.

And what better place to kick off such a wonderful initiative than in Sandgate?

"Sandgate reminds me a bit of Manly where I grew up (and still live) in Sydney's Northern Suburbs. It feels like you're in your own little hub on the beach. You know the people at the coffee shop, you know who owns the milk bar and it's a gorgeous coastal town. Sandgate feels like home to me," says Guy.

For more information on the summit, courses, or how to become an ambassador, contact Paul Timms on 1300 889 587. You can also check out www.guyleech.com.au. ●●

GUIDE DOG REHOMING PROJECT

The search is on for some new “forever homes” for our special dogs who are more suited to a life of love, leisure and good company.

Guide Dogs not only become the eyes for those who cannot see, but also loving companions for life. The freedom, independence and mobility these special dogs offer to those ### who are blind or vision impaired is immeasurable.

So, what happens to those dogs that don't meet the high standard to become a working Guide Dog?

Naturally, not every dog has what it takes to be a specially trained Guide Dog, just as not every child will become a doctor or lawyer. These dogs are still very special though and often make superb family pets and companion dogs.

Guide Dogs Queensland Rehoming Coordinator Nicci Cahill said she is currently on the look-out for northside residents who can provide a “forever home” for one of these dogs.

“It really is a special opportunity for people who may have considered getting a dog as a family pet or companion, but don't want to go through the puppy stage of life,” Ms Cahill said.

“Our dogs make wonderful pets and sometimes just need a loving home. It's for this reason we accept applications from community members interested in purchasing one of our rehomed dogs.

“It's a popular program and we allocate dogs to families that are the best match to ensure it's a really good fit for everyone. Happy dogs and happy homes are the key to success.”

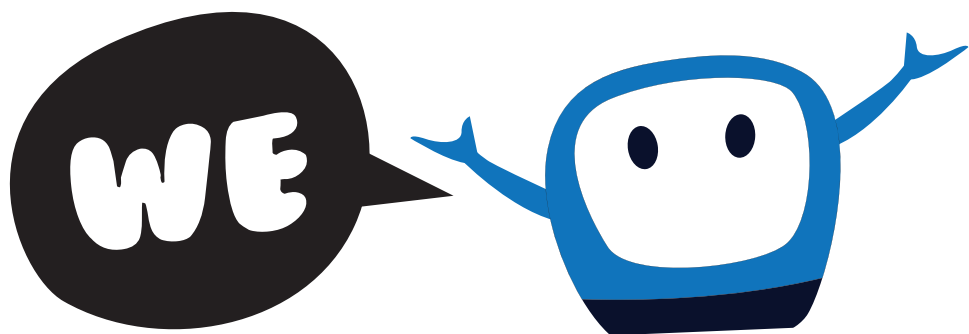

Ms Cahill said the charity was also on the look-out for temporary boarding homes.

“For those who can't take on a dog full-time but would love to help us by caring for one of our dogs in their homes on a short-term basis, our boarding program would be perfect for you,” she said.

“Ideally, we're looking for someone who will be at home most of the time, but this can be flexible depending on the specific situation.

“It's a really rewarding experience and I'd encourage those with the time to get involved.”

For more information and details on eligibility for either of these programs, please visit www.guidedogsqld.com.au or call 3261 7555. ••

Deagon Ward Councillor Victoria Newton said rebuilding works commence this month for the new Shorncliffe Pier following the final removal of the old Pier.

"I know there is a great deal of mixed emotions in our community as we watched the old Shorncliffe Pier come down – the old Pier held a great deal of personal memories for so many people over its 130 year history," Cr Newton said.

"While it has been very sad to see the Pier go, I know we're all eagerly awaiting the construction of the new Pier which has been promised to be open in time for next year's Bluewater Festival at Easter-time 2016.

"Work to completely remove the existing Pier was completed last month – with the rebuilding works starting with the installation of the new piles to support the new structure.

"People living or working near the site or visiting the park will have noticed some of the sound from the pile driving.

"Some of these piles are for the special temporary platform which will support the construction machinery where the new Pier lands close to the shore, while others are for the permanent piles for the new Pier.

"Visitors to Lower Moora Park will notice the large crane which is in place to assist with the works.

"It's quite a sight to watch these works take shape – and while much of the parkland and car parking spaces are available to the community to use there will be times when vehicles relating to these works will be accessing the site.

"So if you're heading to Lower Moora Park please be sure to take care and follow the instructions of traffic controllers when necessary.

"While there have been some delays in March due to the wet weather, hopefully with the drier winter months ahead of us the new Shorncliffe Pier will take shape quickly."

Having commenced in April, the permanent piling works from the temporary platform and also from a construction barge will commence and continue to mid-August 2015, weather and construction conditions permitting.

The concrete girders and headstocks are being cast off-site to be ready for placement following the piling works.

Once the piling works are completed and the supporting concrete structures are in place, work will commence on the timber decking works which are expected to start around July 2015. ●●

PROPERTY MARKET REVIEW

Seasonal Update

Moving into a new quarter sees our local market still lacking properties for sale. The median sale price for Brighton has been on a roller coaster ride over the last few years, and buyers that purchased in 2009 are in catch-up mode.

	2013	2014	2015
Period	Median $	Median $	Median $
Jan	$448,000	$400,000	$397,500
Feb	$540,000	$435,000	$457,500
Mar	$362,500	$456,000	$0
Apr	$400,000	$470,000	$0
May	$420,000	$440,000	$0
Jun	$390,000	$390,000	$0
July	$472,500	$450,000	$0
Aug	$390,000	$463,500	$0
Sep	$405,000	$432,000	$0
Oct	$405,000	$480,000	$0
Nov	$470,000	$489,000	$0
Dec	$467,750	$450,000	$0

The following snap shot of the last 10 years shows the ups and downs of the market. Brighton has held its own against other suburbs within the Brisbane City Council region.

Capital Growth in Median $ (Houses)

If our local property market can stay within or better than other suburbs, we will see a growth for the future (sourced RPDData). We currently have 66 homes for sale in Brighton, 24 of these under contract—so only 42 homes!

Sandgate's median prices have not fared as well, although the demand is still high. There are 37 homes for sale, with 14 properties under contract!

Capital Growth in Median $ (Houses)

There is no one reason we have so few homes for sale in our community, but on a positive note, our recent listings have gone under contract soon after listing—right home, right price, right buyer! And that's all it takes! We do have the best kept secret in Brisbane at our doorsteps, but it cannot stay that way; otherwise no one will know!

WIRED ON SHORNCLIFFE

Ellen Moynihan

The arrival of The Wired Owl Coffee Co on Rainbow Street at the beginning of April has brought fresh aromas of coffee to Shornccliffe. Cafe owners, Aaron and Tracey, have already received great reviews of the shop, as well as a growing number of happy regulars.

Aaron and Tracey started out in a small coffee van in Lawnton, travelling around to cater at various events. They had always loved the Shornccliffe area, and would come on weekends to walk their dog and try out the cafes at Sandgate. "It was just a bit of luck we came past one day and saw the building was up for lease," Aaron says.

Nestled in a quieter part of Shornccliffe, The Wired Owl is a bit further away from the hustle and bustle of central Sandgate. Because of this, the cafe has a relaxed atmosphere and an extremely chilled vibe. Aaron says they are happy with the homely feel of the shop. They wanted a small and more intimate space, rather than a large echoing area.

The couple oversaw the entire fit out process themselves with the help of Aaron's father. The decor includes brightly coloured chairs coupled with darker wooden tones, and a definite owl theme. The name 'The Wired Owl' comes from Tracey's interest in owls, as well as the tendency for people to become completely 'wired' on coffee.

Aaron wants the focus of the cafe to be on the quality of the coffee more than anything else, and wants to share his passion with the community. "We have filter coffee as well as espresso," he says. "Some of the locals were almost more excited than I was on our first day. There is a real sense of community here." Aaron has tried to keep this sense of community alive within his cafe. ●●

CHICK FLICKS

Looking for something fresh and exciting to do with your mum to celebrate Mother's Day? Join us for the Sandgate Chick Flicks on Wednesday, 13th May.

Sandgate Chick Flicks runs once per month in the Sandgate Town Hall and showcases a variety of classic movies from Grease and Dirty Dancing through to Mama Mia.

This month's special event movie, "While You Were Sleeping" is a romantic comedy perfect for your mum or mother-in law and safe enough to bring your teenage daughter to. But it's not just about the movie - receive a complimentary glass of bubbly, dabble in our raffle or sit back and enjoy a refreshment or two with the gals.

Sandgate Chick Flicks is a local initiative proudly sponsored by Tamara and Mark Wecker of RE/MAX Property and Amanda Wecker from Secure Property Management. Proceeds from the event contribute to the local Sandgate AFL JUNIOR Hawks and local schools, including Sacred Heart Primary School. Ask your school if they have a promo code yet!

Anita East
ANTI-AGING COSMETIC SPECIALIST

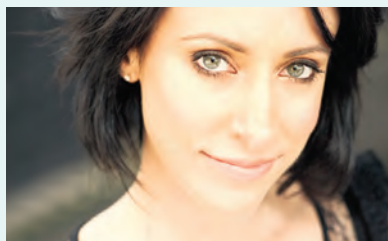

The Secret to Looking Great!

Anita East believes in enhancing your natural beauty - not changing it.

To ensure you stand out for the right reasons and not the wrong ones, here are 3 great tips in what to look for when choosing your practitioner:

1. Does the practitioner look natural and not 'overdone'? How they look is an indicator of their perception of beauty. Less is definitely more!
2. Ensure your practitioner addresses the harmony of your whole face rather than just one area (e.g. Frown or Crows Feet).
3. Find a practitioner who cares for and nurtures you. You should feel comfortable staying with them for life. When your treatment is done well, no one should be able to notice what you've had done, just that you "look great".

A client of Anita's recently commented: "Anita I've been having treatments elsewhere for years and you're the first person who has made me look natural. Thank you."

ROCK UNDER THE CLOCK

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

Susie Laery

Sandgate Town Hall will rock and roll once again as it did in the 1960s when Jim Hansen and The Sonics take centre stage on Saturday 16th May for a night of jive, samba and hits from the 60s.

Guitarist Garry McDonald said, "Last December's 'Rock Under The Clock' went so well, there was such a demand for tickets we decided to put on another show".

The concert will have a different line-up of music but will retain the fun, nostalgia and crowd pleasers that made the last show so successful.

For many in the audience it will be like winding back the clock to their high school dance days. It was this very band The Sonics, a group of 4 young Sandgate State High School boys that organised sell out dances in the Sandgate Town Hall during the 1960's.

Inspired by British instrumental rock group The Shadows, the boys followed their passion and next thing, they were playing for their fellow classmates at the Sandgate Town Hall.

Careers took the boys in different directions and the band split up. It wasn't until 1996 they were asked to play at their high school reunion. Upon reuniting it was instant music reconnection. The Sonics were back!

In 2012, The Sonics were invited to play at the Sandgate Town Hall's centenary and this was the catalyst for future performances.

Local Shorncliffe vocalist Jim Hansen, a gifted musician, has become the 'Cliff Richard' of the band. The paths of Jim and The Sonics never met until years later, but is a union that has cemented the band's rocking reputation.

Annette Smith on keyboards together with her background vocals takes the music to another dimension. Annette is trained in classical piano and spends much of her time playing for Queensland Ballet.

Playing back in Sandgate, the birthplace of The Sonics is a proud moment for the band. "We get a special feeling when we play in Sandgate. Having all grown up in the area we have a real connection with the community and especially the Town Hall," says Garry. The band sees the importance in giving back to the wonderful community that Sandgate is - the starting point of their musical journey. All proceeds of the show will benefit The Sandgate Historical Society and The Sandgate Rotary.

If you are keen for a trip down memory lane or just want to experience the swing of 60s rock 'n' roll, then head along to the Sandgate Town Hall.

THREE UNUSUAL PLAYS

A variety of one act plays

Four famous women from history, a group of soldiers in WWII and a defence lawyer stretching the limits of cross examination are the three groups of wonderful characters that will have you thinking at Sandgate Theatre's next production.

In 'Politically Correct' by Jennifer Marie Sancho, four inmates of an asylum rebel. Jane Austen, Margaret Thatcher, Emmeline Pankhurst and Florence Nightingale must work together to escape their incarceration and advance the causes of women.

In 'I Dream before I Take the Stand' by Arlene Hutton, a defence lawyer cross-examines a woman during a sexual assault case – and in doing so horribly distorts her innocent walk in the park.

The third play 'The Magistrate' is written by Sandgate Theatre member Alec Adsett and this will be its first ever showing. It is about a small group of soldiers fighting in WWII,

How did this lot get together in the same room?

Emmeline Pankhurst

Florence Nightingale

Margaret Thatcher

one of them is near mortally wounded and in his near death state meets the mysterious figure of the Magistrate. She decides if the wounded soldier should ascend, descend or be returned to the mortal plain.

In between the plays we will feature Award Winning Bush Poet Ron Leikefett a former Australian Champion and recent winner at the prestigious 'Oracles of the Bush' poetry competition at Tenterfield NSW.

David Jones, Sandgate Vice-President and Co-Director, with his daughter Caitilin of Politically Correct, says "These one Act Plays are presented by a great mix of highly experienced actors and a sprinkling of new talent. They provide a great opportunity to showcase Alec's new play and introduce some new Directors to our group. I'm very excited to be involved in putting this night together with a great bunch of people."

Sandgate Theatre is again offering 'Dining with the Stars' which is proving very popular. This concept invites the audience to bring whatever food and drink they want (table seating provided) while watching the show. ••

MARKET DAY DANCING WILL BRING HISTORY TO LIFE

Ellen Moynihan

Brighton based dance troupe, the Kazuri Tribe, will once again be treating audiences to their unique style of dance at their first ever market day in the Sandbag Community Hall.

The tribe are locally known for their colourful dance style, performing American Tribal Style and Tribal Fusion dance. American tribal style is inspired by belly dance, flamenco and gypsy style dances. It also involves improvised choreography, with secret cues and signals that allow the group to perform together. Tribal Fusion adds inspiration from more rhythmic styles of dance such as Bollywood, hip hop, burlesque, and modern interpretive. The group has grown since it was first formed in 2005, and they are now well known on Brisbane's north side for their performances at Einbunpin Festival, Bluewater Festival, Hays Inlet Festival, and several others.

Kazuri Tribe member and dance teacher, Lea-Anne, is organising and hosting the event, and hopes it will provide a valuable chance for the dance troupe to meet members of the community. "We just want people to come along, have a look around and have fun," she says.

For a $1 donation, attendees at the market day can explore the range of unique clothing and accessories on offer. "We hope that everyone may find a treasure," says Lea-Anne. "There is clothing, big gypsy dance skirts, handcrafted hair and jewellery accessories, ethnic necklaces and hand-dyed silk veils."

All the proceeds from the market will go towards purchasing a trailer for the Kazuri Tribe's historic re-enactment group to store their props in. The re-enactment group began at the dance classes run at Brighton State School, and grew from there. They have since been building up their collection of props, and have performed at Abbey Medieval Festival. ●●

BACKYARD BONANZA RETURNS

BYB (aka Backyard Bonanza) is an annual celebration for the Bracken Ridge & surrounding communities. BYB will see approximately 5,000 people converge on McPherson Park in Bracken Ridge to enjoy three stages of entertainment on Sunday 24th May.

Starting in 2005, BYB was created to bring local residents, schools, community organisations and businesses together to celebrate and promote the strong and inclusive community spirit.

The event showcases the talent of local school bands as well as professional entertainment, in conjunction with the ever-popular Bracken Ridge Central Lions Club's miniature steam train rides.

"BYB is a great opportunity for the community and community groups to celebrate together and raise awareness. This will be the eighth year I have been involved with the event. I am particularly pleased that young people are getting more involved with the youth stage, which was new to BYB last year," said Cr Amanda Cooper.

The introduction of a youth stage (stage 3) was to broaden the appeal of BYB so that teenagers and young people had more of an opportunity to be involved. Staff of Jabiru Community Youth & Children Services have mainly been responsible for the stage program and sourcing the performers.

This year, the line-up for the 3 stages packed with fabulous entertainment looks like this:

FOR 2015

Stage 1: The Cheap Fakes

The Cheap Fakes are a much loved six-piece live band, ready to unleash their pop infused, brass fuelled funk and ska sounds to the stage.

Stage 2: The Hoot and Hootabelle Show

Hoot and Hootabelle are best owl-pal's who love playing, singing and dancing to some of their famous tunes.

Stage 3: Hottest new youth acts

Performances from the local area, including school bands and local talent.

As well as entertainment on the stages, there will also be:

- Free skateboarding demonstrations
- Ticketed rides area
- Delicious food and creative community stalls
- Mini-train rides
- Choirs and dance groups
- Fun workshops and activities

BYB is a much-loved part of the local community's calendar and this year will be even better than ever. ●●

MARKETS & MOVIE UNDER THE STARS

Suzi O'Shea

Norris Road State School is excited to announce that they will be hosting their first Community Markets and Movie on the school oval on Saturday 30th May.

Kicking off at 3pm, the markets will include everything from handmade clothing, crafts, food and drinks. The Norris Road State School Community Markets Extravaganza provides plenty of variety to appeal to family members of all ages. There will even be a petting zoo and rides for the kids, just like a traditional school fete from the good old days.

Councillor Amanda Cooper has awarded the school a grant, which has allowed the P&C to include a family movie screening in the evening. Starting at 6pm, Planes Fire & Rescue will be shown on the big screen. Disney's high-flying animated comedy is revved up with action and adventure. Take your picnic blankets and rugs, get cozy and enjoy a night out under the stars with the whole family.

"I have been on the P&C Committee for a few years and this year I took up the role of Vice President and Coordinator of the Markets," said Christine Alfonso. "This will be our major fundraiser for the year. We are hoping to raise vital funds to install air conditioning throughout the school classrooms."

The Norris Road State School is a growing school with over 500 students. It is great school with an active P&C and lots of parent involvement, and is very involved with the community.

"We have had many local businesses donate items towards our cent auction and raffle." McDonald's Bracken Ridge, Chermide Aquatic Centre and Bracken Ridge Plaza have all made donations towards the cent auction and raffle to be run in conjunction with the markets.

"Without these donations, we wouldn't be able to put all of our proceeds towards facilities for the school," Christine says.

For more information contact Christine Afonso on 0414 540 894. ●●

MUSIC BY THE SEA

Simon Tedeschi

As a kid, Simon Tedeschi was so focused on mastering the piano that he once rolled up to school in his PJs.

Now, having evolved from child prodigy to classical superstar, the formally attired concert pianist is often described by respected critics and musical peers as “one of the finest artists in the world”, and in a stunning coup returns to perform for Music By The Sea on Saturday 6 June.

Sandgate’s 102 year old heritage-listed Federation style Town Hall is renowned for its excellent acoustics and will provide a gracious backdrop for the concert, starting at 7.30pm.

Those attending will be privy to the same musical majesty enjoyed by audiences that have included Their Royal Highnesses The Crown Prince and Princess of Denmark, Vladimir Putin, George W Bush, Nelson Mandela and the Dalai Lama.

The book of his life is an interesting read - metaphorically speaking - with Tedeschi giving his debut performance of a Mozart Piano Concerto at the Sydney Opera House when he was nine, playing for Pavarotti at 13, lauded as an international award-winning concert pianist since he was 18, and currently signed at the top end to Sony Music Australia.

You may have even spotted him hanging about, the subject of Cherry Hood’s 2002 Archibald prize winning painting titled ‘Simon Tedeschi Unplugged’.

He said, “I get so excited to be doing this for a living - because I have the honour of touching creation. I get inspiration from every where - not just museums and concert halls. I might get inspired by a film, an animal or even a car. For instance, I am inspired to create macabre darkness in Shostakovich's First Piano Concerto by watching 'A Clockwork Orange' or literally see the permutations of a fugue by watching the sinewy 'Don't Look Now'. I've even been known to be inspired by some of John Water's older films - but that's another story."

Meanwhile, in yet another chapter Simon performs to a different beat, engaging in one of his non-musical passions as Official Patron of the charitable organisation Microloan Australia. The aim of the Foundation is to help the poor help themselves to eradicate poverty by providing small loans to groups of women in sub-Saharan Africa.

"As someone who is not an economist, it struck me as being very pragmatic and common sense," he said.

He would like to see more classical musicians adopt a socially engaged focus.

"Music is not divorced from the social context in which it operates," he said.

SECRETS OF OUR PIONEERS

Guided History Walks

Catherine Cox

The Historic Bald Hills Cemetery sits quietly on what was known as Bracken Hill on Barrett Street, Bracken Ridge. It holds many of the secrets to Sandgate's and Brisbane's colonial history. Now these secrets come to life with guided walks by Pam Verney, organised by the Sandgate Historical Society.

A large part of Sandgate's early colonial settlers can be found resting in these grounds. Pam Verney, from the Sandgate Historical Museum, will be taking guided walks past these resting places, to share the stories of their lives. Pam has thoroughly researched the history of this cemetery and the lives of those who rest here.

On these walks Pam will transport you back to the days when Sandgate was a newly established settlement, to a time when horse and buggy was the main mode of transport. You can find hints to parts of the settlers' lives by tracing the births and deaths of family members that rest beside them. Pam will share some of their secrets with you as well.

Pam says, "What I have been really enjoying in my research is the linkages between the lives of our early pioneers and our understanding of our history.

"My favourite stories to share about these outstanding early settlers are Margaret Mitchell, Agnes Thorne, Ellen Wickham and Paul Pepler."

Come along on one of the guided walks and share their stories. This tour includes a special opportunity to enjoy a short "smoko" with the settlers. Some of the pioneers include William Barfoot, the 1st headmaster of Sandgate State School; the Best family, the most well-known historically being Isaac Benjamin Best from I. B. Best Butchers; the Verney family; and the Wickham family. ●●

A LOCAL HISTORIC FIND 118 YEAR OLD ORGAN

A Kimball “Cherry” pump organ made by the Kimball Organ Manufacturing Co. in Chicago, USA in 1897

AND WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT STILL WORKS? (apart from 5 keys)

This historic artifact originally came from the Baptist Church, Flinders Parade, Sandgate, and was donated to the Sandgate Museum by Mrs. Fay Davis and Mrs. Lynette Cuthbert from their family's private collection. They had purchased the organ from the Masonic Hall on Eagle Terrace, Sandgate in 1975 for $50, from an advertisement in the local paper.

Research by way of both photo and serial number identification confirms the organ was made in 1897.

The organ is in excellent condition, made from solid mahogany hardwood with ivory keys, and operates from two foot pumps which supply air from two bellows to 61 thin flat brass reeds, that have tongues which vibrate to make the sounds. Short reeds are treble and the longer ones for bass. The organ has 11 stops which can alter sounds and vibrato over a wide range, capable of making sounds like a harp, horn, oboe, piccolo, violin, trumpet and many others.

The organ is on display at the Museum in front of a full wall mural of the Baptist Church, painted by local artist Mrs. Jean Cayser when the museum opened in 1994. ●●

TACKLING SANDGATE!

Mark Templeton

It is Tailor time in the Moreton Bay area and we need to make the most of the cooler weather to put your fish on the table.

We need to make sure that we are geared up, Rods checked, Reels checked and serviced if needed and the all-important Tackle is up to speed.

There will be a few fisho's out there that may not have serviced their gear prior to putting it away last season so it is really important to get it checked now and make sure you're not left behind when they arrive.

For those that have not chased Tailor before, there is no big mystery on what to do or what you need. Basically a 2-4kg or a 3-6kg rod is ample and a reel between 2500 – 4000 will get the job done. Now if you want a reel that will last you almost a lifetime, grab an Alvey Reel, no mess no fuss it gets the job done.

A few of us use both Mono and Braided lines but this comes down to personal preference, one does not normally fish better than the other. If you are just getting into it I would recommend using a quality Mono line like Schneider or Super 100 and then you may upgrade when you are ready.

What do I use, Bait or Lures? Well I do a lot of my Tailor fishing at night on a High Tide and after a long day I like to relax a little so I use either Blue Baits or Pilchards. Cast it out with a small ball sinker and a set of either 2/0, 3/0 or 4/0 Gang hooks (I use Tru-Turns) and sit back and relax with friends.

I use lures during early morning or late afternoon, small Slugs with a single hook or my favorite Halco Redhead Popper.

Tailor will be wide spread, from the mouth of the Brisbane River through to Bribie Island, but you will normally find us at the Sandgate Swimming Pool.

For those that are new to Tailor fishing I would strongly suggest a packet of Band-Aids as they have very sharp teeth!!

If you would like more Fishing Tips or you would like us to cover particular topics, visit www.tackleland.com.au and drop us a line.

Enjoy your time with the family and "Maintain the Passion". ●●

MORETON BAY RAIL LINK STEAMING AHEAD

The Moreton Bay Rail project is on track, as work progresses on laying more than 52 kilometres of track and construction of Kippa-Ring station continues.

The first piece of track was laid on 18 March 2015, about 1 kilometre out from Petrie Station.

Federal Member for Petrie, Luke Howarth MP, said the stations are being built to a modern design with prefabricated standard parts that can be installed onsite, providing an efficient solution that offers value for money during construction.

Kiss'n'Ride drop off points, as well as taxi and bus areas, will also be built at the station, and 1000 car spaces will be provided.

Moreton Bay Rail will revolutionise public transport in the north of Brisbane and will significantly free up capacity on our road network.

"It's exciting to see the Moreton Bay Rail project come to life with each development and with every milestone," Mr Howarth said.

"I'd like to thank Transport and Main Roads and the workers on site who are making sure the Rail Link is being delivered on time and under budget."

The Moreton Bay Rail project will deliver 14 kilometres of new dual-track passenger rail line between Lawnton and Kippa-Ring, connecting to the existing North Coast line.

The $988 million project is jointly funded by the Australian Government, Queensland Government, and Moreton Bay Regional Council.

Passenger trains should start running on the tracks by late 2016.

ROCKIN' 4 THE HOMELESS

The much-needed Drop-In Centre for Redcliffe's homeless will be brought to reality thanks to Club Shambles, Quest and Dolphins Leagues Club who are co-presenting the community fundraiser, Rockin' 4 the Homeless 2.0, on Saturday 9th May.

Those attending will not be disappointed with a line up including Mental as Anything, Phil Emmanuel, Team Utopia, Seleen McAllister, The Counterfeit Umbrellas, Steve Skinner and many more.

Starting at 2pm on Saturday 9th May at Dolphins Leagues Club, Redcliffe, the community can expect not only great music, but also fantastic raffle prizes, an awesome environment, and that nervous anticipation through the Rock-a-thon as they strive to raise $50,000!

"Entry to the club is free and tickets to access the main stages, including Mental as Anything, are $20pp," advised Mr Nebe. ●●
